This work is

DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF MY ANCESTORS

Who, as the early founders of New England, were a reverent, conscientious and industrious people. A consideration of their lives, hardships and achievements, cannot fail to prove beneficial.

It is the earnest hope of the author that the result of his labors may impart to others the same gratification that it has afforded him in its preparation.

CONSIDER SMITH FAMILY IN AMERICA

(1) CONSIDER¹ SMITH

Came from England with his parents, and settled in Falmouth, Mass. He married Parnel Mason of New Bedford, Mass., Dec. 4, 1806. She was born April 1, 1790, and died April 11, 1866. He was lost at sea off Cape Hatteras, Nov. 23, 1809, while on his way from Fairhaven, Mass., to Savannah, Ga., in the sloop Thetis. He was one of the twenty-nine who perished, there being only five survivors. He was then about twenty-three years of age. After his death his parents returned to England. His widow married Joshua Morse of Acushnet, Mass., in Nov., 1812. Children, born in New Bedford, Mass.:
